

UNITED STATES TRAVEL AND TOURISM ADMINISTRATION

The United States Travel and Tourism Administration was abolished during fiscal year 1996 due to severe budget cutbacks. The agency's critical tourism functions were transferred to the International Trade Administration .

The Department of Commerce is diligently working to settle all debts.

SUMMARY OF APPROPRIATIONS

(Dollars in Thousands)

Funding Levels

			2001	Increase
Appropriation	1999	2000	Estimate	(Decrease)
Salaries and Expenses	$0	$0	$0	$0
Rescission pursuant to 105-119	(915)	0	0	0
TOTAL BUDGET AUTHORITY	(915)	0	0	0

PERMANENT POSITIONS

Salaries and Expenses	0	0	0	0
-----------------------	---	---	---	---

